Art. 4. Selection procedure and assessment criteria

The Selection will be made by a Board appointed by the Head of the Department of Political Science, Communication and International Relations. It consists of the assessment of the academic qualifications and other qualifications written in the curriculum vitae.

The final ranking is based on the score achieved by each applicant. The maximum score is 20 points.

For the graduate students the evaluation of the degree mark is made as follows:

Degree mark, for a maximum of 10 points

- with a mark lower than 100/110 1 point
- with a mark from 100 to 103/110 3 points
- with a mark from 104 to 107/110 5 points
- with a mark from 108 to 110/110 7 points
- with a mark of 110 cum laude/110 10 points.

Study and Cultural qualifications (Master’s Programmes, Postgraduate courses, other degrees in related subjects); language qualifications (certificates or diplomas issued by relevant institutions for English, Russian or Ukrainian language), will be evaluated for a maximum of 10 points. Only those courses organized and managed directly by University institutions will be taken into consideration.

In the event of applicants obtaining the same scores, the final ranking will be defined on the basis of the following criteria of priorities:

1. Undergraduate degree final mark (highest) / weighted average of the exams taken (highest);
2. Age of the applicant (youngest).

Art. 5. - Announcement of the ranking

The final ranking of the admitted students will be published on the website of the Department <http://spocri.unimc.it/it/didattica/offerta-didattica/corsi-di-laurea-magistrale-doppio-titolo> or <http://gpr.unimc.it/courses/double-degree-with-kiev-ucraine/double-degree-program> from the 12th of January 2017. In order to confirm the acceptance, selected students must send an e-mail to didattica.spocri@unimc.it by the 14th of January 2016.

In the absence of such acceptance, the applicant will be excluded and the admission will be granted to the applicant ranking next in the list.

In case of renunciation, the next eligible student in the rankinglist will be duly informed.

The candidate shall always be updated on the procedure status, actively checking the process and the news from the University Administrative offices on the website. The announcement of the ranking on the website of the Department <http://spocri.unimc.it/it/didattica/offerta-didattica/corsi-di-laurea-magistrale-doppio-titolo> or <http://gpr.unimc.it/courses/double-degree-with-kiev-ucraine/double-degree-program> is the only official communication to all the applicants and/or winners.

Art. 6. – Enrollment

Graduate students are required to enrol to the postgraduate degree course in “Global Politics and International Relations” curriculum “International Politics and Economic Relations” (LM-52) no later than the 15th of January 2017.

Students will be required to pay the tuition fees in accordance with the administrative student guide A.Y. 2016-2017 published on the website of the University and will be admitted to the partner University on a reciprocal basis.

The student will have to bear the costs of food, accommodation and health insurance. Scholarships might be provided in case of financial aids from the Ministry, the European Community, or from any other institution.

Candidates who have a place on the ranking list will be considered to have withdrawn if they fail to enrol within the aforementioned time limits: in this case the admission will be granted to the applicant ranking next in the list.

Art. 7. - Appointment of the responsible for the procedure and access to the documents

According to the relevant rules Dr. Adriano Morelli (adriano.morelli@unimc.it - 0733 258 2865) is appointed as the responsible for the selection procedure. For further information please contact Mrs. Maria Luce Dragotto (marialuce.dragotto@unimc.it – 0733 258 2521).

Applicants have the right to access documents of the selection procedure according to the procedure required by the law in force.

Art. 8. - Information on the treatment of personal data

The University of Macerata and the Department of Political Science, Communication and International Relations will use the personal data provided by the applicants, exclusively for the purpose of this Selection Call and will be treated in compliance with all relevant privacy law (with or without the use of informatics systems).

In compliance with art.13 of the Legislative Decree no. 196/2003 applicants have the right to access personal data, to obtain updating, rectification or, where interested therein, integration of the data and blocking of the data that has been processed unlawfully.

The owner of the personal data is the Department of Political Science, Communication and International Relations, Via Don Minzoni, 22/A – 62100 Macerata.

Art. 9. - Final dispositions

For what not specified above, this call shall be governed by the current Italian laws. The call, the presentation of the course, the requirements of access to the course, the application forms for admission to the selection and registration are published in the website of the Department of Political Science, Communication and International Relations at the address <http://spocri.unimc.it/it/didattica/offerta-didattica/corsi-di-laurea-magistrale-doppio-titolo> or <http://gpr.unimc.it/courses/double-degree-with-kiev-ucraine/double-degree-program>

Such publication is the official notification to the parties concerned all the effects and consequences of the law.

Every official communication to the applicants will be sent exclusively to the University email address (with the extension @studenti.unimc.it) or, if the applicant does not have it, to the one written in the application form.

Macerata, 21/12/2016
